

Summer Ideas!

Complete the Language Arts Choice Board

Read Scholastic News ~ non-fiction articles. (sent home)

Math Simple Solutions (book was sent home)

Math facts ~ Continue maintaining addition and subtraction facts, get started on multiplication facts for third grade

Handwriting ~ practice cursive writing

Fiction reading ~ visit the library to read a variety of books!

Recommendation of two great series:

Cobble Street Cousins by Cynthia Rylant ~ 6 book series

The Lighthouse Family by Cynthia Rylant ~ 8 book series

Count the coins in your piggy bank

Write a letter to a friend or family member ~ mail your letter!

READ STORIES FROM YOUR BIBLE

Create a poster about your family using pictures and words

READ A RECIPE AND MAKE IT!

Make up a board game about proper nouns, plural nouns, and possessive nouns

Have a great summer!

Language Arts Choice Board

Try to complete a straight line (horizontal, vertical, or diagonal)!

Challenge: Complete the whole card!

Read a book in a cozy spot with a pillow and a blanket.	Read a book in the car or somewhere other than in your house.	Read to someone younger than you. (In-person, Facetime, or call)	Read a biography. Write down 5 facts about the person you read about.	Make a tent with a blanket and read your favorite book inside it. Then read the book to a family member.
Write 3 good, detailed sentences about something you did today. Edit your sentences.	Facetime or call a friend/relative and read a book to them.	Make a list of adjectives that describe you. Get someone to check the spelling of the words.	Read to a stuffed animal or pet.	Check out the food ads from the mail. Read the food names and prices.
Read a fiction book. Fiction is a made up story.	Have your mom or dad read a book to you.	Write the steps to making your favorite sandwich or dessert.	Read a non-fiction book. Non-fiction is true with lots of facts.	Write a story about someone who does something good for their community.
Read a mystery book. Write 2 sentences about who solved the mystery and the clues they found.	Partner read a book with your mom, dad, or sibling.	Read a Scholastic News article. Tell someone 5 facts about what you read.	Read a book with a flashlight in a dark room.	Make a list of your favorite foods, toys, and stores. Get someone to check the spelling of the words.

